Olympic gold medalist Jason Gardener MBE has presented a prestigious sports award to a Bromley school.

St Mark's Church of England Primary School in Aylesbury Road became the first primary school in the borough to receive the afPE Quality Mark award, on September 16.

The prize recognises strong, quality sports education within schools.

After the presentation, the children heard the retired sprinter talk about winning his gold medal in the 2004 Athens Olympic Games.

"The children were so engaging, energetic and inspired. I truly do believe sport can change lives," he said.

Headteacher Jennifer Richards said: "We value and support children's sporting
